

FILLING IN THE GAP

Justifying Ourselves Rather Than Rest in Jesus

(The more honest & open you are, the more you'll have to confess, the more you'll be forgiven)

List the things that annoy you the most about living in your house.

What frustrates you the most about people in your school?

Do you ever comfort yourself by thinking, "At least I am not like that person"? Describe a situation.

Describe a recent time when you spread a negative report about someone to your friends or family.

Describe a recent time when you told people about how great you are or something great you did.

Explain how you handle situations when they do not live up to your standards or expectations.

What is your natural reaction when your family or friends expose your sin or shortcomings?

Describe a time when you told others about a situation and you changed the facts just slightly to highlight yourself or the significance of your situation.

Have you ever been excused of a shortcoming and passed the blame off on someone else? Explain.
